

ORANGE COUNTY REGISTER

February 21, 2016
Circulation: 138,364

JOBS

PEOPLE ON THE MOVE

By ANGELA RATZLAFF
THE ORANGE COUNTY REGISTER

Non-Profit Project Independence Promotes Debra Marsteller to President & CEO

Costa Mesa-based non-profit Project Independence promoted DEBRA MARSTELLER to president and chief executive officer. She has served as executive director of the organization since 1982. She is a member of the California Disability Services Association and serves on the Costa Mesa Chamber of Commerce board of directors. Project Independence offers living, supported employment and behavioral support services for people with developmental disabilities.

Debra Marsteller

SEE PEOPLE pg 2 >

FROM People pg 1 >

ANNA LAAKMAN was named director of education and training for Santa Ana-based Center for Autism & Neurodevelopmental Disorders. In her new role, Laakman will create training opportunities for individuals who work with people with neurodevelopmental disorders. The training programs will be for caretakers, psychologists, behavioral consultants, school personnel, medical professionals and social workers.

Anna Laakman

Newport Beach-based real estate firm Villa Real Estate has added four new agents to its team: ROBERT PELLKOFER, KELLY PERKINS, MARY ELLEN WEGLARZ and BOB WEGLARZ. In addition to these hires, nine new agents have joined Villa in the last quarter of 2015. ■